

COMPUTERIZED BIOENERGETIC TESTING

The Wave of the Future!

What is it?

Bioenergetic Testing utilizes a computer based instrument which measures the energy of the body using acupuncture meridian point readings, providing a new and highly accurate method for determining the energetic causes of allergies and ailments.

Bioenergetic Testing is the product of a 30-year evolution in Biological-Energetic/bio-feedback testing. Dr. Voll and Dr. Werner of Germany developed this new approach to good health utilizing a modern computer and sophisticated program. Relatively new in this country, it is felt by many people to be the most significant breakthrough in health in many years. The technique is understood, accepted, and used widely in other countries, especially Germany, France, England, and Canada.

It is based on the Chinese Medical theory that improper energy flow through the acupuncture meridians causes energy imbalances in the body. During the past 30 years, doctors have identified the interrelationship between acupuncture point measurement and individual organs and tissues. Bio-energetic testing is also very similar to bio-feed-back. It has been endorsed by many doctors and dentists in the U.S., including Roy Curtin, Ph.D. of Brigham Young University, Fuller Royal, M.D. of the Nevada Clinic, Las Vegas, NV, and John Sinclair, D.D.S., from Arkansas.

What Can It Do?

1. Identify chemicals, pesticides, herbicides, and other toxic materials in your system (including any problem with dental materials such as mercury).
2. Determine the energetic level of each and every organ in the body and how well it is functioning.
3. Indicate allergies and foods that are best-suited to your specific biochemical make-up (what should be added, or eliminated from your diet).
4. Identify environmental allergies to heavy metals such as mercury, aluminum, and other types of allergies to yeast, fungus and molds.
5. Indicate any vitamin or mineral imbalances.

In fact, the system is capable of performing over 13,600 individual tests on your body. Perhaps more important, the machine will automatically indicate what remedies you may need to help you and your doctor correct various problems and deficiencies.

How Does It Work?

The computer measures the degree of electrical resistance of the acupuncture points, generally the hands and feet. These measurements indicate the balances of imbalances of the various organ systems of the body, and can detect low-level reactions in the body. It also indicates which nutritional or homeopathic remedy and the exact potency that will bring about an energy balance. Bio-energetic testing can also monitor the patient's progress. There are no side-effects or after-effects with proper use of electro-diagnosis and therapy. No piercing of the skin, no discomfort, and no electrical impulses are felt during the testing. The only clothing that must be removed are your shoes and stockings.

Who Can Use This Service?

Anyone wanting to improve the quality of their health and life, or for more specific uses such as to enhance sports performance. Tennis pro Martina Navratilova has used this approach as part of her overall health program under the direction of Dr. Whitcomb, M.D. in Colorado.

What Are The Benefits?

Bioenergetic Testing shows any type of energy imbalance in your body and tests for vitamin-mineral deficiencies as well. It takes the guesswork out of what your body needs and can tell you and your doctor more about the current state of your body's health. It will indicate remedies for correction of any energy imbalances.
